Title: Compassion Fatigue: When Helpers Get Tired of Helping

Presenter: Amber Painter (STLIB)

Summary: You love your job, your organization, and your community. But there can still be days when you feel like you have nothing left to give. If at the end of the day you feel drained, or irritated, or both, you may have "compassion fatigue." Compassion fatigue, also known as secondary traumatic stress (STS), is a condition characterized by a gradual lessening of compassion over time. This session will help you recognize the symptoms and the situations that may trigger compassion fatigue and understand how it affects you and your working environment. Explore ways to take care of yourself so you can continue to show compassion and give your patrons the care they need.

Target Audience: Administration, Cataloging, Patron Services

LEU Type: LEU

Title: In the Spotlight: Catalog Housekeeping Reports

Presenter: Anna Goben (STLIB)

Summary: Catalog maintenance is a never-ending process, but there are some reports available that can help you find priority projects and focus your efforts.

Target Audience: Administration, Cataloging

Title: An Overview of Serials Cataloging

Presenter: Jocelyn Lewis (STLIB)

Summary: Magazines, newspapers, and journals are constantly flowing into your library! Join us for a review of best cataloging practices so that you and your patrons may more easily locate, request, and borrow them.

Target Audience: Cataloging

LEU Type: LEU

Title: Policy Development - Keeping it Real

Presenter: Mary Kay Emmrich (NWTCO)

Summary: Library policies are carefully written directives to guide staff in accordance with the Library Board of Trustees' determinations. While the Board develops and approves policy, the Director and staff are responsible for writing policy, and the implementation of policy through procedures. Keeping policies reasonable, effective and current are challenges in any Library setting. Learn what policies are mandatory to remain compliant, how to organize policies, addressing Evergreen Indiana determinations in policy, resources for policy development, and how to establish a realistic policy review practice for your Library.

Target Audience: Administration

SESSION SUMMARIES (CON'T)

Title: Show Me the Money: Fiscal Reporting

Presenter: Anna Goben (STLIB)

Summary: Everything always seems to come down to money these days, right? Are you using the fiscal reports that will streamline your bookkeeping workflow, aid in collection development, or general asset management? This session will review the existing templates in Evergreen and how to leverage them to make the numbers game a bit easier!

Target Audience: Administration

LEU Type: LEU

Title: SRCS vs. Evergreen Indiana

Presenter: Steven Schmidt (STLIB)

Summary: Resource sharing has expanded dramatically in Indiana in the past few years. Find out more about the latest project to get resources into our patrons' hands and how it integrates with Evergreen.

Target Audience: Administration, Patron Services

LEU Type: LEU

Title: Using Data to Tell your Library's Story

Presenter: Suzanne Walker (STLIB)

Summary: How can you leverage available data about your library and programs to tell your library's story better? Learn how to set up outcome based project evaluations that can build your narrative. Learn to create intuitive and inspiring data visualizations and craft your elevator pitch!

Target Audience: Administration, Patron Services
